affairs of our city are due to the shortage of accommodations for the Normal School students. It is estimated that the school will lose to the community in a selfish

For some unknown reason those of our vision and even of no vision at all for the future, and the extremely selfish have always had too much weight in Richmond, and have hindered its progress and retarded its improvement. The citizens of this city are more progressive than those of any other city in this state.

After having consulted with a few of our progressive citizens, it was decided to invite you to attend a meeting of the leading citizens of Richmond and Madison county, Ky., to be held at the Elks lodge room in Richmond, Ky., Jan. 1, 1920, meeting to begin at 1:30 p. m.

When everything is said and done, you'll have to admit that the best coffee you ever tasted, served to yourself by buying it at the Elks lodge room today. D. B. McKinney & Co. 332 6

LIVES WITH ADLER-KIA!

My wife was pronounced incurable by physician unless operated (complicated bowel trouble), began giving Adler-Kia and she improved. I shall continue until she is cured. (Signed) J. I. Underwood, Marion, Ala. Adler-Kia empties BOTH upper and lower bowel, flushing entire alimentary canal. Removes all foul matter which poisons the system. Cures constipation. Prevents appendicitis. We have sold Adler-Kia many years. It is a mixture of buckthorn, cascarilla, glycerine and nine other mild drugs. Henry L. Perry Son.

DR. SCHOTT FREE
ON $8,000 BAIL

Dead Girl's Sister Gives Sensational Testimony At His Examining Trial

(By Associated Press) Louisville, Jan. 1.—Dr. Christopher G. Schott, released on bail last night in the sum of $8,000 on a charge in connection with the death of his office girl, Elizabeth Griffith, December 24th, appeared at his office today to attend to business as usual. Answering a reporter's question he said he felt fine. He indicated he had a great deal of business to attend to which had accumulated since he has been in jail, including the hiring of a new office girl.

At the examining trial of Dr. Schott which consumed nearly all of Wednesday two new witnesses, Mrs. J. H. Hall and Dr. R. B. Thomas, introduced by the prosecution, support statements by Wm. E. Ryan that he saw Dr. Schott at his office December 24 at approximately 2:30 o'clock.

Both Mrs. Hall and Dr. Thomas who said he was a good friend to Dr. Schott, and had exchanged professional courtesies with him, stated that they also had seen Dr. Schott at or about the time indicated by Ryan.

This is in denial of Dr. Schott's claim that he was not near his office from 1:30 to 3 p. m., during which it is believed Miss Griffith was murdered.

When spectators (and the courtroom was crowded with them) listened to every word by attorneys and to answers witnesses gave to questions. A number of women declined to leave the courtroom when the time for luncheon recess came, but remained in their chairs and did not leave until court adjourned.

earing was concluded at 5:15 o'clock and Judge A. T. Burgo ordered the accused man to be bound over to the grand jury at fixed his bond at $8,000.

Dr. Schott later was released on bond furnished by Dr. J. H. Hood, who offered five pieces of real estate valued at $8,000. The bond commissioner insisted on a cash guaranty and three checks aggregating $4,500 were given by personal friends of Dr. Schott, and indorsed by R. J. Hagan, one of Schott's attorneys.

Of all the testimony introduced none was so sensational as that of Kate May Griffith, sister of the dead girl. She declared emphatically that her sister did not kill herself, and followed this assertion with the remark: "I feel, I believe, I know she was killed by a man insanely jealous."

She avowed her hatred of Dr. Schott, and said she could sense his presence at the other end of a telephone before hearing his voice. She repeated previous testimony given that Dr. Schott answered her telephone call for Elizabeth at 2 o'clock and that she talked with her sister at the hour.

In the course of testimony given by Frank Elvin, detective, who told of his visit to the office of Dr. Schott shortly after the murder was reported, the officer told of a threat made, he said, by Schott to kill himself.

GOES TO ROCKCASTLE
TO RAISE TOBACCO

Lee Abney, a well known farmer of Union City, has just purchased a farm in Rockcastle near Conway, and says that he is going to surprise everyone with the quality of tobacco that he raises there next season. He is now moving to his new home with his family. He bought 167 acres at a price of $25 an acre, from Charles Owens. About 80 to 100 acres are cleared bottom land; the rest is timbered land. Mr. Abney is an expert tobacco grower, and if he gets a good crop on his new place, he will probably more than pay for it the first year. Anyway his experiment will be watched with much interest.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
PLANS BIG THINGS

Program To Be Outlined At Congregational Meeting and Social Session Friday

The congregation of the First Christian church will open the new year with a congregational meeting and social hour on Friday evening. The church has had a year of splendid progress and with a greatly enlarged budget which has already been pledged in the Every Member Campaign, is making extensive plans for a great program in 1920. The reports of the year's work will be made by the heads of departments Friday evening and the proposed program for the new year announced.

Mr. Carpenter will make his annual report and submit recommendations for the coming year. Following the business session there will be a social hour with refreshments served under the direction of a committee composed of Mrs. R. E. Turley, Mrs. S. D. Parrish, Mrs. R. W. Colyer, Mrs. Homer W. Carpenter, Mrs. Chas. Gaines and Mrs. Arthur Todd.

CARRY ON CLUBS FOR DISABLED VETERANS

American Legion Approves Plan To Provide Wounded Soldiers With Good Homes

(By Associated Press) New York, Jan. 1.—Disabled war veterans in Boston, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Baltimore, Milwaukee, Detroit, Columbus, O., San Francisco, Denver, New Orleans and Minneapolis, handicapped for life and unable to more than barely live on the government allowance of $80 a month during their vocational training, have written to the headquarters of the Carry on Association here requesting the establishment of Carry On Clubs in the cities named.

According to the projectors of the association which provides the wounded soldier with a good home, nourishing food, laundry, dental and medical care, transportation and an allowance for clothes, all for $10 a week, a dependent ex-fighter is thus left with money enough to keep up his war risk insurance and have some amusement besides. Since last April when the first experimental club was opened in New York at 38th street and Madison avenue, accommodating forty men and ten extra for meals, its work is said to have shown great possibilities. The organization opened another New York club on Christmas Day and the week previously one with capacity for 150 men was opened in Washington.

The enterprise is said to have the approval of the American Legion which is reported raising $50,000 in New Orleans for a "Carry On Club" there. Denver, with 3,000 arrested tubercular cases, is also reported to be preparing for a club drive. Altogether there are between 230,000 and 260,000 disabled ex-service men in the United States.

The "boys" in the Carry On Clubhouses do much of the housework and enforce their own regulations. A big sunny living room filled with ex-soldiers playing, reading and chatting or singing to the accompaniment of a phonograph or piano is the chief feature of the institution. One young ex-fighter said he gained 31 pounds in 30 days as a result of the good food and care he had received. The first club was formed, it was said, because it was shown by carefully compiled statistics that while an invalid young man might be able to live on $80 a month in many parts of the country it was impossible to do so in a large city.

1920 TO BE "OPEN SEASON" ON REDS

(By Associated Press) Washington, Jan. 1.—The year of 1920 will be an "open season" for Bolsheviks, anarchists, and kindred radicals, who are in this country, with the idea of overthrowing the government. In a statement today Attorney General Palmer announced that the policy of the Department of Justice in dealing with the "red" menace the coming year will be one of "unflinching persistent and aggressive warfare." No quarter will be shown, he declared, and every movement aimed at the government, no matter how cloaked, will be dealt with sternly. He asserted 75 per cent of the unrest of the country has been traced directly to this element.

Let's Hope Not

London, Jan. 1.—A Soviet wireless from Moscow today flashed New Year greetings to the world and predicted Soviets at Berlin, Washington, Paris and London. It added "Soviet authority will be supreme throughout the world in 1920."

No Loss From Boose Tax

(By Associated Press) Louisville, Jan. 1.—Loss of revenue from whisky, beer and wines will not decrease the revenue of Kentucky for 1920, according to the State Tax Commission. The commission's annual report stated that normal increase in property values and in growing industries will offset the loss in taxes on liquor. The revenue for Kentucky for 1920 without any change in the tax system, was estimated at $12,200,000, whereas in 1918 it was $10,459,000 and in 1919, $12,324,690.

Funeral of Beloved Young Woman To Be Friday—Mrs. Caperton Pays Beautiful Tribute

The remains of Mrs. H. Hasbrouck Haynes arrived in Richmond on the noon train from Chicago Thursday. They were immediately taken to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Covington, at Maple Lawn on the Lancaster pike, where funeral services will be held Friday afternoon.

Her uncle, Mr. C. L. Searcy and Mr. Walter Park, and sister, Miss Mary Q. Covington, went to Cincinnati and met Mr. Haynes with the body, accompanying it on here.

Mrs. James W. Caperton, a close kinswoman, has paid the following exceedingly beautiful tribute to the memory of this beloved young woman, taken so suddenly:

In Memoriam

Mrs. H. Hasbrouck Haynes

The shadows have fallen across the old Kentucky home, and all who loved her so dearly are bowed with grief in the passing of Louise Covington Haynes, wife of Mr. H. Hasbrouck Haynes, which occurred at the Michael Rees Hospital, Chicago, on Tuesday, December 30, 1919. So wholly unexpected was the blow, that even when the message came by telegram, her family and friends were unable to grasp the meaning which it was meant to convey. Her beautiful young life was sacrificed upon the altar of motherhood and the little son, for whom she gave her life, survives.

She was born at the family homestead, Maple Lawn, on May 24th, 1885,—the second daughter of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Milton C. Covington.

She grew into womanhood radiant in beauty, brilliant in mind and attainments, and gracious and graceful in all that she did. In her college course she turned most readily to belles lettres; and gifts of language and of a graceful pen, both were hers. Wherever her travels led her the most delightful people were drawn to her, and it was on the high seas returning from one of her trips to Europe that the beautiful romance of her life began, which resulted in her marriage on October 7th, 1911, to Mr. Hasbrouck Haynes, of New York City. The wedding was one of the most beautiful ever celebrated in Richmond, and the union proved to be ideal. Since her marriage, as before, her glorious spirit has grasped in all the enthusiasm of youth the many impressions which delightful social connections in a great city can bring. During the war she was ever engaged in patriotic work. For a number of years she has been a member of the patriotic societies of her country to which she was entitled through her colonial and pioneer ancestry.

She delighted in christian deeds and through the church of which she was a communicant she served her Master. As she had so freely received in all the gifts with which she had been so generously endowed, she as freely gave.

And so it has come about, that before we felt the sun had begun to reach its zenith, this lovely spirit has learned the lessons of this life, and has pushed aside the curtain and stepped over into the broader, nobler, finer life which our Father has prepared for those who love Him.

Nothing was left undone,—the Christmas messages had been sent to friends; final words to her family had been written, and without fear or warning, she was not,—for God took her.

She is survived by her husband and a little daughter, Louise, whom she adored, and the infant son. To these and to her devoted parents, Mr. and Mrs. Covington, and the three sisters, Misses Elizabeth, Mary and Josephine Covington, the sincere sympathy of a host of friends is extended.

Her memory, a rare and beautiful one, will linger with all who loved her until they too shall lie down to pleasant dreams.

The last obsequies will be conducted from Maple Lawn on Friday afternoon at two o'clock, Dr. Carpenter officiating. The pallbearers, several of whom were ushers at her wedding, will be

SUGAR CONTROL BILL
SIGNED AT MIDNIGHT

(By Associated Press) Washington, Jan. 1.—It was announced at the White House today that President Wilson just before midnight signed the McNary sugar bill, continuing the sugar equalization board through 1920. Secretary Tumulty issued a statement saying the bill confers discretion on the President in the matter of purchasing sugar from Cuba, but it is doubtful if it is practicable or wise for the President to exercise the power conferred as far as the purchase and distribution of sugar is concerned.

WINKLER MOVES TO
HANDSOME NEW HOME

Mr. Millard Winkler is moving this week from his farm near Speedwell, to the handsome home on the Irvine pike, that he recently bought of Mrs. Joe Oldham. There are 30 acres in this tract, and Mr. Winkler paid $400 an acre for it. This is a beautiful residence site, and one of the most complete homes in the county, with all modern improvements.

BUSINESS VIEWS
FUTURE CAUTIOUSLY

(By Associated Press) Washington, Jan. 1.—American business feels anxious over what the future holds, the Federal reserve board announced today in its review of Dec. 1 business conditions. Continued advances in prices, reduction in production and the high cost of living are regarded as commercial menaces. Although the retail trade showed great activity and wholesalers and manufacturers are piled with orders, the growth in business, report said, was in terms of dollars and not in production. High priced labor refuses to work regularly and demand short hours regularly and ed-falling off in production. Meanwhile cautious manufacturers are not inclined commit themselves far into the future.

OIL GOES UP AGAIN

Local oil inventors are highly elated over the news received Wednesday that the price of Kentucky crude oil known as "Somerset", has advanced again, now being $2.25 a barrel. Only a few weeks ago the price was raised from $2.85 to $3.10 a barrel. The present price highest on record in Kentucky, is expected to do much to stimulate further development in the Kentucky fields.

Thomason's Slayer Held Over

James Welch, who on Christmas eve, shot and instantly killed James A. Thomason, the Winchester drummer, in Lexington, while the streets were crowded with Christmas shoppers, was held over to the grand jury without bail at his examining trial. The witnesses were held under $200 each for their appearance before the grand jury at 10 o'clock Monday morning. Judge F. A. Bullock stated that he was related to Thomason, and had Magistrate Charles M. Parrish sit on the bench in his place. Welch was composed during the entire trial. He was not put on the witness stand. Mrs. Thomason, wife of the murdered man, likewise did not testify. All of witnesses were for the commonwealth.

Death of Young Girl

Miss Callie Woods, aged 17, died at the home of Mrs. John Green at Crooksville, Monday after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. She was a most lovable character. Having lost her parents when a small child, she made her home with Mrs. Green, who did everything for her comfort during her illness. Remains were laid to rest in Richmond cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Lady Astor Enjoying Politics

(By Associated Press) London, Jan. 1.—"Lady Astor is hugely enjoying the attentions she is receiving in the House of Commons," says the Star. "Her vivacity is infectious. Veteran members of Parliament are always smiling at her. They enter and leave the House with a new elasticity. There is a scramble to sit near her. The labor leaders seem to look up to her, and are fed with a smile that illumines the whole chamber."

Wants Farmers To Raise Fish

Cincinnati, O., Jan. 1.—J. S. Sackett, Superintendent of the State Fish Hatchery, at Newton, a few miles east of Cincinnati, has begun a campaign to influence farmers to establish fish ponds on their places. He says that the propagation of fish in artificial construction is feasible and that it is a profitable investment. Such a pond a few acres in size, will yield a few tons of fish each year.

A Lead-Pencil Farmer

"About all that I have I owe to my banker. He has been the means of my getting ahead almost from the beginning."

Sixteen years ago the speaker, R. C. Shoup, then working as a farm hand in Grundy county, Iowa, had to ask a storekeeper to give him credit for a pair of boots. In March, 1919, he moved on to a $44,000 farm in that county. On it he has made a cash payment of $14,000; in addition to which his farm capital inventories another $14,000.

During all this time the humble lead pencil has been one of the most important tools on his farm. When you ask for credit you must show your banker exactly how your affairs stand, so Mr. Shoup kept a close record of every transaction.

All has not been smooth sailing for this one-time farm hand, writes Harry R. O'Brien, in the December 27th issue of the Country Gentleman. During his first two years as a renter his crops were destroyed by floods, and the persistence with which he kept plugging away makes it seem that perhaps he is too modest in giving so much credit for his success to his banker. In his business of feeding cattle and hogs, Mr. Shoup is known as an exceptionally good judge of livestock.

"I have always used credit for my capital," he said. "If I need money for a short time, say sixty days, to buy feeders, I borrow. When I am through, I return it. If I used my own it might be idle a while until I could reinvest it." Listing the points in this story gives us a formula for getting ahead, we find them to be, perseverance, credit, an always sharpened lead pencil—and a good wife. Mr. Shoup was married at the end of his two bad years with floods and had to borrow $100 to pay the expenses of the big event, but he says he got his real start in life on his wedding day.

New Assistant Adjutant General Had A Close Call

Capt. Ike Wilder, of Booneville, Owsley county, has been appointed Assistant Adjutant General of Kentucky, by Gov. Morrow. Capt. Wilder saw overseas service and did a fine work for his country. He had a close call just as the boys were preparing to disembark, and in full marching order, Captain Wilder lost his footing on the gang plank and fell into the ocean. As he was heavily burdened with all his accoutrements, he might have had a close call had he not been promptly fished out by the boys.

About GoneMany thousands of women suffering from womanly trouble, have been benefited by the use of Cardui, the woman's tonic, according to letters we receive, similar to this one from Mrs. Z. V. Spell, of Haynes, N. C. "I could not stand on my feet, and just suffered terribly,"
she says. "As my suffering was so great, and he had tried other remedies, Dr. Cardui had us get Cardui. . . I began improving, and it cured me. I know, and my doctor knows, what Car-dual did for me, for my nerves and health were about gone."

CARDUI
The Woman's TonicShe writes further: "I am in splendid health . . .
can do my work. I feel I owe it to Cardui, for I was in dreadful condition."
If you are nervous, rundown and weak, or suffer
from headache, backache,
etc., every month, try Cardui. Thousands of women praise this medicine for the good it has done them, and many physicians who have used Cardui successfully with their women patients, for years, endorse this medicine. Think what it means to be in splendid health,
like Mrs. Spell. Give Cardui a trial.

ELSIE JANIS TODAY

Moviefans will have their opportunity see how a "regular" girl behaves when Selznick Pictures present Elsie Janis in "A Regular Girl" at the local theatres on today. Miss Janis, it will be remembered, forsook the stage and all its magnificent earnings to go overseas to entertain her pals of the A. E. F. Her appearance at the Richmond theatres marks her first public bow in two years and no efforts have been spared to surround the popular comedienne with a story
well calculated to exploit her versatile talents."A Regular Girl" is said to be one of the most entertaining photoplays produced in several months. The authors of the story—Frances Marion and Edmund Goulding—have taken a typical American girl, full of fun and ginger, and placed her in the center of a timely plot whichdeals with the problems and difficulties arising from her determination to land jobs for returned soldiers and aid them in finding "wives to match".There are many novelty scenes throughout the picture, including those which show an entire circus in full blast, a trip through Coney Island's Luna Park a party on board
the yacht "Oneida" and the inner circles of one of New York's "swell" boarding houses.The characters in the play are picked from the stage of life itself.
There are moments of tender heart appeal, interspersed with the inimitable clowning for which Elsie Janis has sole rights.Miss Janis' acting is not confined to the commonplace make believe found in many pictures. What are known in the studios as "personal liberties" have been accorded thecelebrated comedienne, resulting in a swiftly-moving comedy-drama that affords the star unusual opportunities for the display of her own original talents.

HEARD ABOUT TOWN

Bloodhounds were unable to find the trail of the burglar who secured $150 from the Knox postoffice in Knox county instead tracking the postmaster, who visited the place next morning.

Burglars visited the Savoy Theatre and the Comely grocery, at Nicholasville, securing a gallon of whiskey at the first and $40 at the grocery.

The will of J. S. Anderson, Chautauque herald, of Somerset, who amassed a large fortune, bequeaths $10,000 to J. F. Wilson, colored preacher, and his friend in poverty in whose lot at Harrodsburg Anderson's body was buried.

Masters Robert and John Baughman, of Stanford, are spending a few days with their cousin, Shelton Saufley.

The Midway News says: "Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle Myers, nee Miss Anna Bennett Cohen, of Paducah, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Milton Davis this week."
